IMPORTANT - how to return your parcel

Print in-store

1. Find your nearest Post Office branch or Royal Mail Customer Service Point \(CSP\) that supports the 'Print returns label' service.
2. Complete your return request and show the QR code from your return confirmation email at the drop-off location. The label will also download to your device.
3. Hand over your parcel and the drop-off location will print a return label for you.

Print at home

1. If your nearest Post Office branch or Royal Mail Customer Service Point \(CSP\) doesn't support the 'Print returns label' service, complete your return request and print the label from your return confirmation email. The label will also download to your device.
2. Attach the label to your parcel and take it to the drop-off location.

N.B. The QR code and return label can only be used once for the item(s) you have selected. If you want to change return method after you've downloaded the QR code and return label, you'll need to contact Customer Service.
